INVENTING LORETA VELASQUEZ
CONFEDERATE SOLDIER IMPERSONATOR,
MEDIA CELEBRITY,
CON ARTIST
WILLIAM C. DAVIS

OCT 15 @ 2 PM*

Explore the life of the woman best known as Loreta Janeta Velasquez, who claimed to have posed as a man to fight for the Confederacy. She went by other names - Mary Ann Keith, Ann Williams, Lauretta Williams, and more. Historian and author William C. Davis will detail how his book peels back the myths she herself created to reveal a startling and even more implausible reality.

*Included with admission. Free for members. Reception with light refreshments to follow.
