

THE AMERICAN CIVIL WAR MUSEUM

TEACHER ADVISORY COUNCIL 2022-2023 Academic Year

Description:

The American Civil War Museum is looking for 12 teachers from across the state for our Virginia Teacher Advisory Council and 12 teachers from across the United States for our National Teacher Advisory Council. Apply Here!

We want educators who:

- Are interested in shaping how their fellow teachers and students engage with history.
- Teach at any grade level, but especially those who cover content related to the American Civil War.
- Are enthusiastic about helping our organization to create excellent, relevant, and useful offerings for teachers and their students, for use on-site at the museums and in the classroom.
- Can help shape our vision for how we want to best serve educators and their students.
- Are flexible, creative, innovative, and reflective.

Requirements / Responsibilities:

- 1-year participation commitment, estimated at 20 hours total active time, including time worked outside of meetings.
- Attend bi-monthly meetings, occurring on the third Wednesday from 5:00-7:00 pm EST between November 2022 and June 2023. The first meeting will be held on Tuesday, November 29th, 2022, 5:-6:30 pm. Meetings will be held virtually.
- Advise, evaluate, and assist museum staff in the development and implementation of museum offerings for teachers and students, including field trip programs, teacher professional development, and online resources for classroom use.
- Help grow the scope of the Teacher Advisory Council and shape its function for future years.

Benefits:

- Networking with fellow educators from around the state and the country.
- Opportunity to guide the development of offerings for all teachers and students utilizing both personal experience and professional best practices.
- Upon request, a certificate or letter acknowledging participation for potential recertification points.
- Complimentary educator membership to the American Civil War Museum for 1 year, and all associated benefits of Museum membership.
- $200 stipend for participation.
