Status: Full Time
Reports to: Visitor Engagement Manager
Apply: Send resume to Chuck Young at cyoung@acwm.org

Summary

The Visitor Engagement Supervisor oversees front-line associates (VEAs) and operations at the Richmond campuses. The Supervisor ensures smooth operation of site opening/closing procedures, site operations, public program and interpretation execution, retail functions, basic safety compliance, and training.

The Visitor Engagement Department delivers a visitor experience that not only meets the needs and expectations of on-site visitors, but leaves a lasting and meaningful impression. This department is responsible for everything that pertains to the face-to-face delivery of information, orientation, interpretation, and sales in the ACWM. Encounters with the public take many forms and include front desk operations; booked group programs; guided tours, informal interpretation, public programs; and special events.

Duties and Responsibilities

Interpretation/Education
- Interprets the history of the American Civil War and its legacies, and relates the war to current events.
- Coordinates and presents formal and informal interpretive programs for family audiences, student field trips, adult tours, and general public visitors.
- Other duties or projects as assigned

Operations and Administration
- Implements the Museum’s front line opening/closing, cash handling procedure, and emergency operations.
- Supervises front-line operations and part-time and volunteer VEAs.
- Maintains accurate records and supplies: Tracks program attendance, supply levels, and (as needed) evaluations.
- Supports other department activities, including support for staff and volunteer training.
- Contributes to planning teams and committees for larger Museum projects.
- Supports the overall visitor experience of the ACWM by providing exceptional customer service.
